HAUTE ALPINE CHALETS

Quality and Craftsmanship

Did you know.....that at the intersection of quality and craftsmanship are details - the subtleties of design and experience that are proof of extraordinary quality. It is those subtle details that define the DreamCatcher community and set it in a league all its own in Kimberley.

A recognition and appreciation of those same subtle details is a defining characteristic of each new homeowner who chooses to make a home here.

At DreamCatcher, you will notice our signature timber frames and accent details that have been hand-hewn from locally harvested trees, you will notice our custom stonework entrance features tastefully complemented with ironwork, and you will notice our narrow roadways gently curving through the mature Tamarack and Fir trees of our woodland site.

When you tour our model homes, you will note the energy-efficient in-floor radiant heat, the solid wood framed double-glazed windows, and the gas starter on the real wood burning full height stone fireplaces. These are in addition to many other fine details provided to enhance your personal living experience and enjoyment of your home at DreamCatcher.

We have just two built homes available now for you to choose from and that you could be enjoying right away this winter. Ask us for details today.

With the continued signs of recovery in British Columbia's real estate market and our early snowfalls bringing promise of a great winter for skiing and boarding, this may just be the time you've been waiting for to catch your dream of living a High Country life.

We look forward to assisting you on your journey towards a healthy mountain lifestyle.

PS. If you haven't been to Kimberley lately, we invite you to come and take another look. It has much to offer by way of small town charm and as a four seasons recreational haven - not unlike Whitefish, MT or Telluride, CO, 15 years ago.
