

Full Stimulus Package - by DreamCatcher

Did you know.... when you awake after a night's sleep at DreamCatcher you can hear.....nothing. Except perhaps the animated chirping and singing of a few lively birds.

You can touch the stone, wood, steel and bronze finishings inside your DreamCatcher home and feel its strength and warmth.

You can feel refreshed - sleeping in the altitude will do that to a person. You will be invigorated and ready to climb the trails or ski the slopes, and the tensions of the city will slip from your shoulders and ebb off into the distance.

Smell the fresh mountain air. The sky seems so close you can almost touch it, and when you smell the air you will find it devoid of city smog and exhaust.

Next cast your eyes on the ski hill views of the Kimberley Alpine Ski Resort to the west (just a short five minute walk away); and the views of the Rocky Mountains to the east will never disappoint. It is likely you will also see some deer, maybe an elk; and if you are lucky, even a bear. Everywhere around you are trees and you are never far from water.

Taste the good life- a High Country life at DreamCatcher. Whether you are snuggled up by your wood burning fireplace sipping a great glass of red or lounging on the pool deck with a cold beverage and cool companion, this is life as it was meant to be lived.

Indulge all five senses at your Four Seasons Base Camp at DreamCatcher - this is our idea of a "Full Stimulus Package" and there has never been a better time to make it yours.
