

DreamCatcher - The Experience

Did you know....Two of DreamCatcher's alpine chalet designs feature true timberframe construction. This means that real timbers are used structurally to frame the home. They are 4"x 4" hand-hewn, finished with a natural danish oil and sealant. The timbers provide interior architectural interest as they allow for wide open vaulted ceilings and there is no longer a need for typical ceiling trusses - they also add great beauty and true alpine feel. At DreamCatcher, we complement them with plenty of other natural materials - stone countertops and floor tiles, distressed knotty alder hardwood floors and cabinets, and real wood burning fireplaces. Get the true High Country mountain experience at DreamCatcher.

In addition, DreamCatcher interiors feature GE Profile™ stainless steel appliances including a gas cooktop; bronze hand-rubbed fixtures; and oversized master retreats, all rounding out the upmarket finishes. Ask about our featured properties available now - the value is unmistakable and there will never be a better time.

The DreamCatcher experience only gets better when you consider the Exclusive Owners Only MountainSide Club with Chill Lounge and Champion Fitness Centre, as well as the outdoor pool, hot tub and outdoor fireplace....can you envision yourself spending time here?

DreamCatcher's location simply does not get any better in Kimberley. This alpine-themed woodland community with Private Owners' Club is just steps from Trickle Creek Golf Course, the Kimberley Alpine Ski Resort, the 2000 acre nature park with hiking and ski trails, and just a short 5 minute drive to the Platzl in the heart of downtown Kimberley. Add to this a quick 25 km proximity to an international airport in nearby Cranbrook and the ideal High Country lifestyle is revealed.

Strata lots starts at just $149,900 and you can take up to 5 years to complete your High Country dream home. We have 4 DreamCatcher home designs you can choose from or you can plan your own.

There will never be a better time and in Kimberley, there will never be a better place to experience the High Country lifestyle....but don't take our word for it.
